Important Information for Conference Participants

Conference Headquarters

The National Archives at College Park (Archives II) will be conference headquarters, providing registration, local area information, and coffee service. It is also the site of the book exhibits. The Archives will be open to SHAFR participants during all conference hours. For emergencies during the conference, the headquarters can be reached by phone at (301) 713-6020.

Parking at Archives II

Street parking along Adelphi Road is strictly prohibited. Parking in the Archives II Garage is only available to those with special needs (please check appropriate box on the registration form). Permits for these special-needs spaces will be distributed by mail. All others attending SHAFR 1998 must park at UMD and take shuttle buses from there.

Parking at the University of Maryland

Participants who register in advance may obtain a free parking pass for the University of Maryland, Lot 1, located behind the UMD Conference Center. Paid parking is also available on a daily basis in the Parking Garage at the Conference Center (enter from University Boulevard, just east of Adelphi Road). The UMD Parking Garage/Conference Center is located approximately 1.1 miles from Archives II.

Shuttle Buses

There will be University of Maryland shuttle buses operating between student housing, the Conference Center, and Archives II. The buses will run every half-hour during the conference. The Ramada Inn Calverton, the Holiday Inn Calverton, and the Holiday Inn College Park provide free van service to Archives II (please information on registration forms). The other motels listed in this program are not within walking distance and there is no convenient public transportation from them to Archives II.

Metro

Take Metro to Prince Georges (PG) Plaza or Greenbelt stations (not the College Park station). On Thursday and Friday the R3 Metrobus will run a regular schedule between the Metro stations at PG Plaza and Greenbelt, with a stop at Archives II. On Saturday there will be an Archives shuttle between PG Plaza Metro and Archives II.

Local Arrangements

For other questions regarding SHAFR 1998 or to receive additional copies of this program, please call (301) 405-4286 or email SHAFR98@umail.umd.edu.

Climate:

THE AMERICAN REVIEW OF CANADIAN STUDIES

THE ASSOCIATION
FOR CANADIAN STUDIES
IN THE UNITED STATES

Published by the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States (ACSUS), The American Review of Canadian Studies seeks to examine Canada and the Canadian point of view from a decidedly American perspective. Its analysis—both interdisciplinary and disciplinary—strives to define Canada's arts, culture, economics, politics, history, and society from without, breaking away from the insularity of the Canadian academy, recognizing Canada's objective position in the world. Recent theme issues have included "A Trinational Symposium: Canada/The United States/Mexico," "A Sovereign Quebec and the United States," and "The Thomas O. Enders Issue on the State of the Canada-United States Relationship." Future themes include Canada-United States environmental relations and Canada-U.S. agricultural issues, as well as further considerations of Canada's American relations.

Canadian Review of American Studies

Editors Dr. Stephen J. Randall and Dr. Priscilla Walton

The Canadian Review of American Studies is published three times a year by the Canadian Association for American Studies. The journal publishes articles, review articles, and short reviews whose purpose is the multi- and interdisciplinary analysis and understanding of the culture, both past and present, of the United States—and of the relations between the cultures of the United States and Canada. It invites contributions from authors in all relevant scholarly disciplines related to the study of the United States, in English or in French.

Canadian Review of American Studies est publiée trois fois par année par l'Association Canadienne des Etudes Américaines. La revue fait paraître des articles et des comptes rendus de livres. Elle a pour dessein l'analyse interdisciplinaire de la culture Américaine, passée et présente, de même que l'étude entre la culture des Etats-Unis et celle du Canada.

NEW SERIES! from SR BOOKS

Biography of American Foreign Policy

Series Editor: Joseph A. Fry,
University of Nevada, Las Vegas

This new series will present biographical studies of important shapers of U.S. foreign policy and international relations, from the Early Republic to recent decades. Each volume will focus on one significant figure, placing the individual's motives, ideas, and actions in the context of domestic pressures and global influences. Character development, historical settings, and pointed analyses will make each volume an ideal text for courses in U.S. history and international relations.

Premier volume:

- John Foster Dulles
by Richard H. Immerman,
Temple University

Forthcoming books in the series:

- Thomas Jefferson
- William Henry Seward
- John Quincy Adams
- Dean Rusk

All volumes will be available in both paper and cloth editions. Examination copies will be available for those teaching appropriate courses.

Documents of the Emerging Nation: U.S. Foreign Relations, 1775-1789
