The first reference work to reflect methodological changes in Cold War history, which vastly increases the archival, geographical, and analytical scope of Cold War studies.

"What is significant about the new Cold War history showcased in this encyclopedia is that it speaks to the concerns and questions of the early 21st century. This is history written with attention to the aftermath of the Cold War, its reflections on the sacrifices and struggles of the decades before, and its continued influence on a world in a different kind of war. This is history deeply meaningful for the present."

New Studies in U.S. Foreign Relations Series from The Kent State University Press

The Birth of Development
How the World Bank, Food and Agriculture Organization, and World Health Organization Changed the World, 1945-1965
AMY L. S. STAPLES

"Well researched and well written. . . . All students of economic development and international relations should read this."

—CHOICE

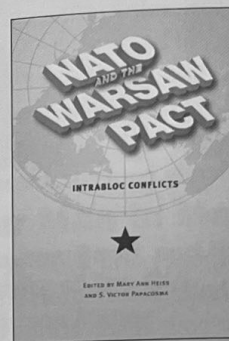

Colombia and the United States
The Making of an Inter-American Alliance, 1939-1960
BRADLEY LYNN COLEMAN

"In a book that highlights Colombia's role in shaping its relationship with the United States, Coleman clearly demonstrates that the Washington-Bogotá alliance was characterized by both independence and interdependence."

—Mary Ann Heiss, Editor
New Studies in U.S. Foreign Relations Series

New Studies in U.S. Foreign Relations Series

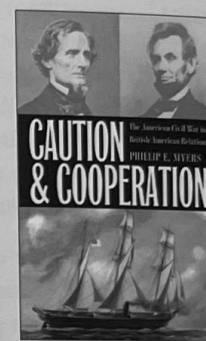

This series focuses on works that expand the parameters of U.S. foreign relations. Chronologically broad and topically diverse, it is designed to further the internationalization—indeed, globalization—of the field by publishing a wide variety of innovative books, including interdisciplinary studies, that place the United States within a larger, transnational context. Areas of focus include, but are not limited to, identity formation and projection, borderlands studies, comparative history, and cultural transfer.

NATO and the Warsaw Pact
Intrabloc Conflicts
EDITED BY MARY ANN HEISS AND
S. VICTOR PAPACOSMA

"The Cold War era has claimed no shortage of publications focusing on issues of interbloc conflict between NATO and the Warsaw Pact. In contrast, intrabloc conflicts, which plagued both alliances, have received generally extraneous attention. The fifteen essays in this volume, . . . seek to fill this relative gap in the historiography."

—From the Introduction

Caution and Cooperation
The American Civil War in British-American Relations
PHILLIP E. MYERS

"Based on extensive research in the United States and Great Britain, this major reinterpretation of the transatlantic special relationship is 'international history' in its truest sense."

CONFERENCE VENUE & ACCOMMODATIONS

This year's conference will be held at The Blackwell, an inn and conference center on the campus of The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio. SHAFR has secured a limited number of rooms at a reduced rate. The deadline for receiving this rate is May 26, 2008. Please note that the hotel is required to honor our reduced rate until this date OR until all the rooms in our reserved bloc have been booked. Once our bloc is full, the hotel will offer rooms at its usual rate, if rooms are available, or may even be completely booked. Please make your reservations as early as you can.

Rates are $129/night per room for single or double occupancy and $179 per room for the inn's "Loft" rooms (suites). You may make your hotel reservation either by phone or online (see below). Even if you prefer to make your reservations by phone, you may want to refer to the website in order to get more information about the hotel services and to get driving directions to The Blackwell. Please also see the "Parking & Transportation" section of this program for details about directions to and parking at the conference.

Use the code "SHAFR0608" to receive our reduced rate.

Our Man in Mexico Winston Scott and the Hidden History of the CIA

Jefferson Morley

Foreword by Michael Scott

"Here is a rare thing, a biography of a C.I.A. chief that neither dodges shameful truths nor throws gratuitous mud. Packed, to boot, with genuine revelations about the crime of the century—the assassination of President Kennedy. A tour-de-force!"

—Anthony Summers, author of Not in Your Lifetime

384 pages, 30 photographs, Cloth $34.95

The Cold War U.S. Army Building Deterrence for Limited War

Ingo Trauschweizer

"Few authors illuminate the details and interactions of strategy, organization, doctrine, and technology as well as Trauschweizer has done here."

—Dave Hogan, author of Centuries of Service: The U.S. Army, 1775–2004

416 pages, 29 photographs, 2 maps,
Cloth $39.95

U.S. Presidents and Latin American Interventions Pursuing Regime Change in the Cold War

Michael Grow

"A stunning account that defines for our lifetime the meaning of the term 'hegemony,' with a graceful, inviting style that foregoes the strident tone of much of the literature on intervention. . . . Should be at the top of Washington's reading list."—Lars Schoultz, author of Beneath the United States: A History of U.S. Policy toward Latin America

304 pages, 1 map, Cloth $34.95

Rumsfeld's Wars The Arrogance of Power

Dale R. Herspring

"A brilliant work that provides superb insights and valuable lessons learned. Herspring is honest, clear, and accurate. This is a must read for all those who desire to understand and never repeat the mistakes of the past."—General Anthony C. Zinni, USMC (Retired)

288 pages, Cloth $34.95

NEW IN PAPERBACK

Total Cold War Eisenhower's Secret Propaganda Battle at Home and Abroad

Kenneth Osgood
