KANSAS

Reconstructing Iraq
Regime Change, Jay Garner, and the ORHA Story
Gordon W. Rudd

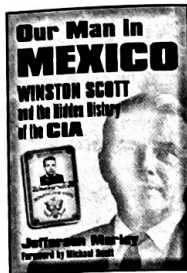

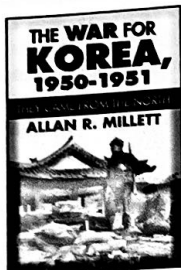

"Rudd's authoritative account held my interest all the way through. It is a detailed, convincing, and finally infuriating dissection of a major policy disaster."—James Fallows, author of Blind into Baghdad: America's War in Iraq

488 pages, 35 photos, Cloth $39.95

The War for Korea, 1950–1951
They Came from the North
Allan R. Millett

"An extraordinarily thoughtful, provocative, and detailed narrative of how the conflict on the peninsula evolved from a 'local war' into a major military confrontation between the United States and Communist China, and how it remained a 'limited war.' It further confirms Millett's position as the world's leading scholar of military history in general and Korean War history in particular."
—Chen Jian, author of China's Road to the Korean War

664 pages, 45 photos, 17 maps,
Cloth $45.00

NEW IN PAPERBACK

Our Man in Mexico
Winston Scott and the Hidden
History of the CIA

Jefferson Morley
Foreword by Michael Scott

"A first-class detective story: a deep investigation into the life and work of one of America's most influential Cold War spies, the CIA chief who served as confidante to Mexico's presidents."

—Tim Weiner, author of Legacy of Ashes: The History of the CIA

384 pages, 30 photos, Paper $24.95

The CIA'S Secret War in Tibet

Kenneth Conboy and James Morrison

"This is a work that makes the reader sit up and take notice. In the hands of Conboy and Morrison, the broader story of the U.S.-backed operation that lasted into the 1970s is engaging as well as important. The tale of Tibet still stands as a salutary warning of the dilemmas of secret and not-so-secret wars."—International History Review
