All employees and contractors who are not fully vaccinated must obtain COVID tests weekly.* Museum visitors will not be required to provide information on vaccination status and no testing is required. Researchers and other public visitors must provide information on vaccination status and unvaccinated persons must provide a negative COVID test result obtained within the past three days.

Each facility's transmission level is based on the higher of the two local health metrics (new cases or positivity).

Facilities may expand operations after three consecutive weeks (including one week prep) in a lower transmission level.

* Until November 22, 2021. Guidance for unvaccinated persons will be updated closer to the mandatory vaccination date.
